

INTEGRATING ENVIRONMENTAL EDUCATION INTO PRE-SERVICE TEACHER PREPARATION

A conference for Faculty of Multiple Subject Teacher Preparation Programs

DATE: May 28-30, 2008

LOCATION: Stanford Alpine Chalet & UC-Davis Tahoe
Center for Environmental Sciences

CONFERENCE OBJECTIVES:

- ✓ Provide faculty with knowledge and skills related to environmental education
- ✓ Introduce how "EE" can be used as an approach to integrate education
- ✓ Facilitate discussion of including EE in pre-service methods courses
- ✓ Demonstrate how EE can support content standards instruction
- ✓ Certification to offer the Project Learning Tree, Project WILD and Project WET programs in pre-service courses
- ✓ Promote the formation of an EE network among university faculty

FOR MORE INFORMATION, CONTACT:

Kay Antunez, Project Learning Tree Coordinator, California Department of Forestry and Fire Protection (916/653-7958) or Kay.Antunez@fire.ca.gov

Brian Brown, Project WET Coordinator, Water Education Foundation (916/444-6240) or projectwet@watereducation.org

Bobbie Winn, Project WILD Coordinator, Department of Fish & Game (916/322-8974) or bwinn@dfg.ca.gov

Supported by a grant from the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's "Environmental Education & Training Partnership" program.